The Weinberg Center For The Arts presents The Brooks Tegler 15-piece Big Band in a re-creation of that World War II Glenn Miller Army Air Force Dance Band. The entire band will be in appropriate uniform of the period and will re-create the wonderful music associated with this orchestra including tunes like Caribbean Clipper, Jeep Jockey Jump, Stardust, American Patrol, Tuxedo Junction, and many more plus Where Or When, Long Ago And Far Away, Speak Low, and All The Things You Are, which were vocals by SGT Johnny Desmond. The show will be narrated by its producer, John Tegler, who is a well know broadcaster, writer, and musician.

Mr. Tegler will tell the story of Major Glenn Miller and his AAF Orchestra.
