

Fort Detrick now offers:

“Something More!”

WHO WE ARE!

“Something More!” is a voluntary group of senior and enlisted military spouses joining together to offer encouragement, support, and information for families of deployed servicemembers from all services within the Fort Detrick community. Spouses may currently be experiencing the hardship and anxiety of being separated from their loved ones for the first time, or may have experience and insight to share from previous deployments. The group seeks to provide the connection for local individual support groups to network and also become the beacon for reaching individual families at risk. The group shares strong support from the Fort Detrick Command Group to encourage and strengthen military spouses as they provide for the needs of their families during the servicemember’s preparation, deployment, and reunion with the family.

WHAT WE DO!

“Something More” organizes, coordinates, and provides monthly special events to encourage support and networking opportunities for spouses and fun activities for the children. Events are usually held on the third Thursday of each month at 1800 at the Catoctin Neighborhood Center, 1401 Ditto Avenue, in the housing area. Invitation is open to all military spouses and anyone interested in supporting or becoming involved with this great effort. Registration is not required.
