The November 13 edition of the Standard can be viewed here.

Look for new exciting news in the next edition which is published November 27! See some of the previews for the next edition below.

- USAMMA Hosts Sgt. Maj. Change of Responsibility Ceremony

The U.S. Army Medical Materiel Agency leadership hosted a change of responsibility ceremony at the Fort Detrick auditorium Nov. 13, welcoming a new sergeant major to the organization.

- USAMRMC Hosts Fall Fitness Challenge

The U.S. Army Medical Research and Materiel Command is hosting an eight-week "Fall Fitness Fun Challenge" from Oct. 26 to Dec. 18 to encourage everyone to embrace the tenants of the Army's Performance Triad – sleep, nutrition and activity.

- Dive Into Fitness: A Personal Account of One of Fort Detrick's Water Aerobic Classes

I initially thought, "how hard can it be?" It looks like you're just relaxing in a pool. Well, I'm here to tell you that, although you're not feeling the impact of jogging on a treadmill or trying to keep up with complicated dance moves, you're still burning tons of calories and, because of the water's continuous resistance, you are consistently engaging your muscles.

NOTE: Weekly announcements will be sent out every Thursday and will span two weeks' worth of events.

Volunteer Opportunities

Girls on the Run is a non-profit after school, curriculum based program working with girls ages 8-13. The 20-lesson Girls on the Run curriculum combines training for a 5K (3.1 miles) running event with lessons that inspire girls to become independent thinkers, enhance their problem solving skills and make healthy decisions. All of this is accomplished through an active collaboration with girls and their parents, schools, volunteers, staff, and the community.

Girls on the Run has two upcoming events: A 5K Run on November 21 and the Candy Cane Dash on December 5. The link to register directly and view the volunteer opportunities is next to each event.

11/21 - 9AM, Girls on the Run 5K. Assistance is needed with set up and course marshalls. <https://www.raceplanner.com/register/index/GOTRFall5KVolunteer>

12/5 - 9AM, Candy Cane Dash.
